HISTORY

In September of 1937 the present graduating class began their long voyage in the sea of education. There are only 16 members of that original class left. They are: Helen Bukowski, Helen Fellows, Leo Sullivan,Doris Walker, Vernon Robinson, Don Sullivan, Doris Potter, James Glover, Jean Ross, Don Lichtenfelt, Jeanine Olsen, Ted Laursen, Junior Brown, Dick Dawson, Dorothy Hoagg, and Violet Mezo.

Four years ago the blue and gray ship set sail in the sea of knowledge, with all freshmen of 1946 aboard. We chose as our captain Leo Sullivan, and his able helpers, Doris Walker and Beulah Cargill. By the end of the year our crew was guiding the ship in a straight and even course. We survived a hard initiation, and passed our exams successfully.

In our sophomore year we had Van Burmeister as captain and Fred Williams, Leo Sullivan, and Ruth Landon as assistants. We led the freshmen through the deep waters of initiation.

For our Junior year we chose Fred Williams, Leo Sullivan, Lois DesJardins and Van Burmeister to guide the ship. The junior play, J-Hop, and Jr.-Sr. banquet were the outstanding successful achievements which kept us very busy.

During our voyage we wandered ceaselessly in the narrow strait of algebra, the Dead Sea of Latin, and while in deep waters we were struck by the Monster Chemistry, but by pouring acids, bases and salts into the water we finally overcame him.

Now we are nearing the end of our voyage with the competent officers, Fred Williams, Paul Oberlee, Lois DesJardens, and Van Burmeister. Soon our ship will come to the end of its journey; the Senior Prom, the Senior Play, Class Day, Bacculaureate, Commencement and the Senior Trip will be over. As the ship is hoisted onto the drydock we look back to our voyage in the sea of education with fond memories.

SENIOR PROM

Boys, have you got yourself a date for the Senior Prom on Saturday, February 4, at 8:30? If not, you had better make it snappy because the "big deal" is only nine nights away; and as you all know, girls are known to take for ever and ever to get prettied up for their special date.

And girls, when this "wonderful guy" does ask you to go, don't say "I can't go because I don't have a formal," for this big event is semi-formal.

And boys, don' feel that you ca make it becuase of money situation, be

by

B L O S S S T U D I O

May this picture be symbolic for the Seniors, who completing this part of their education, now enter upon a new phase of life's endeavors.

Surely these school day memories will be kept brighter by the photographs in this book. So, too, may we suggest that many of Life's important occasions can best be permanently recorded by a studio portrait.

I shall be glad to serve you as much as I can in the future.

THANK YOU!
